

COMMUNITY RELATIONS GOALS

The Board of Education recognizes that one important aspect of school business is school-community relations. With this in mind, the Board establishes the following public relations goals:

- to promote the school district's mission statement;
- to give opportunities for an exchange of ideas that will promote better education for all students;
- to promote student achievements;
- to gather input for decisions affecting the whole district;
- to provide a forum for the discussion of issues affecting education;
- to inform the community of developments in education;
- to keep the community accurately informed about its schools;
- to facilitate dissemination of information to the community concerning issues and activities in the school;
- to solicit community input in such areas as curriculum development, budgeting, facility planning, and activity development;
- to disseminate factual information concerning the budget;
- to understand community attitudes and aspirations for the schools; and
- to promote a spirit of cooperation among the Board, the schools, and the community.
